Methodist Counseling and Consultation Services

A Samaritan Counseling Center

We are men and women of faith committed to honoring each person's spiritual path and life process. We are licensed, certified therapists and counselors, including ordained clergy, trained to integrate the resources of faith and the behavioral sciences in a compassionate, holistic counseling environment.

The Methodist Counseling & Consultation Services provides services in the following areas: Counseling, Consultations, Education, Supervision, Testing and Evaluations.

Counseling

As therapists, we work with individuals, couples, families, groups, adults, children, adolescents, single-parent families and step-families struggling with a variety of issues including:

- Stress
- Self-esteem
- Guilt and shame
- Anger management
- Depression and anxiety
- Loss and complicated grief
- Marital and family conflict
- Trauma and abuse
- Domestic violence
- Parenting
- Life changes
- Personal growth
- Illness
- Spirituality
- Pastoral Counseling
- Sexual / Physical Abuse
- Pornography Addiction
- Divorce Adjustment
- Anxiety / Panic Attacks
- Substance Abuse
- Eating Disorders
- Post - Traumatic
- Stress Disorders
- Bipolar Disorders

Consultation

As consultants, we respond to needs within the church and community by presenting workshops, retreats, and consultations designed to heal, inform and empower. Consultations may be brief or long-term and may involve crisis intervention and trauma debriefing, conflict resolution, psycho-education, re-visioning, and facilitation of transitions in the church's life. Consultation services are made available to:

- Congregations
- Clergy staff
- Judicatories
- Agencies
- Business/industry
- Professional practices

Education

In addition to individual, couples, and family counseling, MCCS staff members can be available to teach or facilitate workshops on a host of topics. Topic themes can be tailored to the needs of the group.
